New Vision Display Announces Availability of Aftermarket Screen Protectors Using Accessory Glass by Corning®

Roseville, CA – October 9, 2015 – New Vision Display, Inc. (“NVD”) has been approved by Corning Incorporated to manufacture and sell glass screen protectors made with Accessory Glass by Corning®, a new offering from Corning specifically for the glass screen protector market .

NVD will process Accessory Glass by Corning® at its new Hunan, China manufacturing facility. Earlier this month, NVD began offering screen protectors made with Accessory Glass by Corning® to customers under private label, white box, or as retail-ready fully packaged kits under NVD’s brand name, “Shield Tech”.

David Kruse, NVD’s President of Worldwide Sales and Marketing said, “We are very pleased to be one of the first companies authorized to manufacture and sell screen protectors using Accessory Glass by Corning®. The ability to use Corning’s high-quality glass and trademark on our screen protector products gives our customers a tremendous advantage in the rapidly growing screen protector market.”
